U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Omar Martinez began his term of supervised release on December 19, 2013, with a discharge date of December 18, 2014.

Mr. Martinez was placed into substance abuse treatment on January 6, 2014, and had his initial intake on January 13, 2014. He is currently participating in substance abuse treatment with Treatment Associates to include group, and individual sessions. Additionally, he was placed on the comply random urine analysis. However, the offender recently admitted to smoking marijuana on or about September 27, 2014. He reported the recent loss of his grandmother has been very difficult for him, since she took the role of a mother figure when his parents abandoned him. Furthermore, he recently found out his girlfriend is 5 months pregnant that has put some financial stress on him. This officer has increased Mr. Martinez's individual counseling sessions to help address his grandmother's loss, abandonment issues, and his financial stressors.

Mr. Martinez was reminded of his conditions of supervised release. Mr. Martinez is aware that if he incurs any other violations the Court will be notified.

It is respectfully recommended the Court take no adverse action and allow Mr. Martinez the opportunity to work with his counselor and participate in his substance abuse treatment. This officer will closely monitor his progress to ensure his sobriety.
